Latest Update on Bahrain

The following information was provided by Kanoo Shipping, Bahrain.

The Kanoo Shipping office in Bahrain is currently closed and will remain so till further notice.

We advise against any crew change in Bahrain right now, due to the civil unrest which has engulfed the country.

Delays at all Bahraini seaports are to be expected due to shortage of stevedores and truck drivers. Customs at APM Terminals have closed the gate today morning and, currently, there are no gate transactions planned at this stage.

Road transportation in and out of Manama continues to be at a virtual standstill ever since armed military forces took to the streets to contain the rioting.

Nobody can be reached on cell phones, as mobile phone network coverage has been temporarily suspended throughout the country.

For any urgent queries and emergencies, Mohamed Qurban, our Operations Manager, can be contacted at home on 00973 1723 2122. Any and all correspondence for our Bahrain office, must now be copied to our 24 hours Communications Centre, which is based in Dubai, at 24hours@kanoo.ae.
