2. --- Saudi Arabia / Dammam – New Port Rules ---

The following information was provided by Kanoo Shipping, Dammam.

As per circular ref: No.4/662 issued by the Operation Dept. Manager of King Abdul Aziz Port, Dammam, the following are to be implemented with immediate effect:

- 1. Requests from Shipping Agents, for export or re-export of cargoes, either by sea or by land, shall not be accepted unless customs clearance formalities in respect to such cargoes are completed and supporting documents thereof are attached to such requests. This also applies to any materials to be taken out from the vessel / marine craft arriving at the port.
- 2. Any letters to Port Operations Dept. from Shipping Agents, consignees and / or custom brokers must be addressed to the Port Director General and the same must be signed by an authorized person mentioning his name and title.
- 3. Shifting of cargoes and containers between vessels and dock or vice versa shall be done only with the prior approval of Port Customs.

4. Severely damaged cargoes shall be discharged only with the written approval from the consignee. Agent's approval in this respect is not sufficient to discharge such cargoes.
5. Manager of Port Operations Dept. has the responsibility and authority to approve above during normal working hours. Vessel's Operations Co-ordinator shall deputize for him in his absence. After official working hours and only on urgent cases that might cause delays / inconvenience to operations, Shift Supervisor on duty has the authority to approve after ensuring Customs approval.
