1. Sri Lanka – SLPA Signs Deal with ZPMC of China

1. --- Sri Lanka – SLPA Signs Deal with ZPMC of China ---

The following information was provided by Kanoo Shipping, Sri Lanka.

Sri Lanka Ports Authority (SLPA) recently signed an agreement to purchase essential cranes for operations at the Jaya Container Terminal (JCT).

As per the agreement it is expected to purchase gantry and transfer cranes that await long standing necessities at the JCT. The much older machinery in operation at the JCT cause considerable concern over matters pertaining to the efficiency at the JCT during the recent past and as a fruitful measure to overcome the barriers arisen due to the situation, the Chairman of SLPA Dr. Priyath B. Wickrama and the Management have taken steps to sign the agreement. The agreement was signed between the Chairman of SLPA Dr. Priyath B. Wickrama and the Director (Sales and Marketing) of ZPMC Chen Hai.

The recently signed agreement enables SLPA to purchase three Gantry Cranes and twenty four mobile cranes at a cost of Rs. 7200 million. Although it takes around 16 months to obtain the required machinery following the agreement, according to the usual procedures, ZPMC has certified that it would take maximum efforts to minimize the period in favour of the strong position of bilateral and diplomatic ties between Sri Lanka and China.
